harm tender stomach, liver and bowels,

Every mother realizes, after giving ber children "California Syrup of Figs" that this is their ideal laxative. because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without griping.

When cross, irritable, feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue, mother! If coated, give a teaspeonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul constinated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic-remember, a good "inside cleaning" should always be the first treatment given.

Died of Premature Old Age!

How many times we hear of comparatively young persons passing away when they should have lived to be 70 or 80 years of age. This fatal work is usually attributed to the kidneys, as, when the kidneys degenerate, it causes auto-intoxication. The more injurisus the poisons passing thru the kidbeys the quicker will those noble ortans be degenerated, and the sooner

It is thus the wisest policy, to pre-vent premature old age and promote long life, to lighten the work of the kidneys. Everybodys' Son but Mine.

"There's one kind of spirit we don't want in America," said a novelist, "and that is the spirit which was too prevalent at the beginning of the war in England.

"An English statesman visited Not tingham, the ince-making town, the other day, to ask for labor volunteers, and the mayor said that Nottingham wanted to do her duty, but nothing, of course, must be allowed to barm the Nottingham face industry.

"Then the statesman jumped up and said that the mayor was a survival of the old 1914 spirit, now happily dead "California Syrup of Figs" can't and buried in England-the spirit that made each English father wave a flag in August, 1914, and shout;

"Take everybody's son but mine!"
